

Privacy Policy

This Privacy Policy describes how Immigration to USA, a professional law corporation ("we," "us," or "our") collects, uses, and protects information when you visit immigration2025.com or communicate with our office, including through our website contact forms, consultation scheduling, email, phone, and text messaging.

Last updated: October 12, 2026.

Information We Collect

- Contact information you provide: name, email address, phone number, and mailing address.
- Information you share when you request a consultation, submit a contact form, or communicate with our office about an immigration matter.
- Technical information collected automatically: IP address, browser type, pages visited, and time spent on the site, typically through cookies or similar technologies.

How We Use Your Information

- To respond to your inquiries and schedule consultations.
- To provide legal services you request.
- To send administrative messages, appointment reminders, and billing communications, including by text message if you opt in.
- To improve our website and client communications.

We do not sell your personal information to third parties.

Text Messaging

If you provide your mobile number and opt in, we may send you text messages about your consultation, your case, appointment reminders, and billing. Message and data rates may apply. Message frequency varies. You may opt out at any time by replying STOP. For help, reply HELP or contact us at (818) 501-8888.

Attorney-Client Confidentiality

Information you share with our firm in the course of seeking or receiving legal services is protected by attorney-client confidentiality and applicable rules of professional conduct, in addition to this Privacy Policy. However, please note that simply visiting this website or submitting a general inquiry does not by itself create an attorney-client relationship (see our Terms of Use).

Information Sharing

We may share information with service providers who help us operate our practice (such as scheduling, billing, or communications platforms), and as required by law, court order, or to protect our rights. Our service providers are expected to safeguard the information they handle for us.

Data Security

We use reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect your information. No method of transmission over the internet is completely secure, and we cannot guarantee absolute security.

Cookies

Our website may use cookies to remember your preferences and understand how visitors use the site. You can set your browser to refuse cookies, though some site features may not work properly without them.

Your Choices

- You may ask us what personal information we hold about you and request corrections.
- You may opt out of text messages at any time by replying STOP.
- You may opt out of non-essential emails by following the unsubscribe instructions in the message.

Changes to This Policy

We may update this Privacy Policy from time to time. The current version will always be posted on this page with its last-updated date.

Contact Us

If you have questions about this Privacy Policy, contact Immigration to USA, a professional law corporation at (818) 501-8888.